Status: Closed	Start date: 2009-08-29
Priority: Normal	% Done: 100%
Assignee: danij
Category:
Target version: 1.9.0-beta6
Description When viewing the help screens accessible via the menu or the F1 shortcut (default) it is no longer possible to advance to next page using any key. Currently the only way forward is by using the "menu" open/close toggle.
